

Soochow University Outstanding Foreign Student Scholarship

Issuance Guidelines

Approved on Jun. 20, 2003

Amended on Mar. 11, 2005

Amended on Feb. 14, 2007

Amended on Oct. 1, 2012

Amended, approved by the President on Mar. 19, 2019

Amended, approved by the President on Jun. 22, 2021

Article 1 In order to encourage the outstanding performance of foreign students, these “Soochow University Outstanding Foreign Student Scholarship Issuance Guidelines” are hereby issued (referred to herein as the “Guidelines”).

Article 2 Application requirements:

1. A foreign student having studied at Soochow University (SU) at least one semester and being formally listed in the student rolls of the university
2. Undergraduate students: Shall have earned at least 9 credit units, have earned an average grade score of at least 80 in his or her academic performance and an average behavioral conduct score of at least 85 during the previous semester
Master’s and doctoral students: Shall have earned an average grade score of at least 85 in his or her academic performance in at least one course and an average behavioral conduct score of at least 85.
3. Have not previously received any government-related “Taiwan scholarship”

Article 3 Processing period: every May, the exact timeline will be announced by the International Affairs Center (herein referred to as the “Center”).

Article 4 Application method: Applicants who fulfill the above requirements shall complete the relevant online application forms and upload the following documents during the relevant application period:

1. Previous semester’s school grade report or transcript (including the student’s behavioral conduct score)
2. Alien Registration Certificate (front-side copy)
3. Student ID card (both sides; including the school’s stamp attesting to active study)

Article 5 Method of review: The number and amounts of scholarships awarded will be based on funds availability for the given academic year and determined by the International Exchange Committee. Distribution of scholarships will be suspended if no funds are given during the given academic year.

Article 6

These Guidelines shall be approved by the International Exchange Committee and the President before being announced. The same applies for any amendments.